

The Atlantic Council of Canada

The Atlantic Council of Canada

Invites you to a roundtable discussion

“Economic War—Emerging Economies,
Energy Inflation, U.S. Bond Yield Ceilings” with

Mr. Peter Gibson

Managing Director, Portfolio Strategy &
Quantitative Research, CIBC

To be followed by a wine reception with the speaker

Speech Synopsis

Mr. Peter Gibson will be speaking about his sense of urgency about energy security and his beliefs that there is a burden of debt in western economies, which he believes to be at super critical levels. He will focus his talk mostly on the United States because of their role in the direction of the global economy.

When: Tuesday, September 14th, 2010

18.15 – 21.00

Roundtable & Reception

Coffee, tea, wine and hors d'oeuvres

Where: 165 University Avenue

Dominion of Canada General Insurance Building

(University & Adelaide)

4th Floor Conference Room

About the Speaker

Peter Gibson is the managing director, portfolio strategy and quantitative research at CIBC. He is considered one of the best quantitative research strategists in the country, having made good calls in the past while employed at Desjardins Securities Inc. and Scotia Capital Inc. He has recently participated as a speaker in ACC's Spring Conference, and we are excited to have him back for a more intimate discussion.

Fees:

Members: $20.00

Non-Members: $25.00

Non-Member Students: $15.00

Student Members: Free

Please contact the ACC by September 13th, 2010 to register

by calling (416) 979-1875 or e-mailing ana.polyakov@atlantic-council.ca

Directions:

Public Transit: 165 University Avenue is located just North of St. Andrew's Subway Station.

Parking: Public parking is available west of University Avenue, on Richmond, Adelaide or Pearl streets.